

DANA POINT HARBOR

Your Service

Honor your loved one with a serene and meaningful ash scattering ceremony while cruising along the scenic coastline of Dana Point, California. This peaceful journey at sea offers family and friends a private setting to reflect, remember, and say farewell in a dignified and respectful manner.

Our service is designed to be straightforward and worry free, with no additional taxes or boarding fees. You are welcome to bring your own food and beverages to enjoy during the cruise, allowing you to personalize the experience in a way that feels most appropriate for your family.

Following the ceremony, we will provide you with an official Certificate of Coordinates, documenting the precise location where your loved one's ashes were respectfully scattered at sea. This certificate allows you to revisit this meaningful place in the future, offering a lasting connection to a moment of remembrance and peace.
